Practitioner Resource for Parents

NCH's Practitioner Resource for Parents as Partners in Early Learning recognises that parents are a child's first teacher. Developed in partnership with parents and children, this comprehensive, colourful resource provides simple guidance for practitioners working with parents and children that can be adapted to suit the needs of each child and family, and each learning setting.

This essential resource provides a framework to involve parents in early years learning, improving their children's communication, social and emotional skills. Divided into practical sections, the resource provides:

- clear, detailed sessions for children and parents
- photocopiable handouts
- CD-rom of the handouts
- CD of the music for the 'Let's move and make music' sessions

This resource has been developed by staff at NCH Dearne Community Children's Centre in Barnsley, South Yorkshire, in consultation with parents and children.
